METAL DETECTABLE PRODUCTS (THIS PAGE ONLY)

The DETECTABLE HYGIENE range has been specifically developed for the Food Processing Industry and adds a new dimension to the claims using "ALL DUE DILIGENCE."

The products in this range are all produced from a specially formulated material based on high impact food contact approved polypropylene. This material has the ability to be detected and rejected by typical metal detection machines used in the Food Processing Industry. Also, they are magnetic so can be removed by MAGNETIC SEPARATORS; they are X-RAY VISIBLE; they are detectable in FOIL WRAPPED products using ferrous-only metal detection machines.

All products are approved to EU, 90/128 for contact with food and the base material is FDA R1 approved and designed for use in hygienic environments.

As the products are plastic, they will not damage delicate and expensive production plant equipment should an accident occur and a product become entangled in equipment.

These products are COST-EFFECTIVE AGAINST STAINLESS STEEL.

The materials and products have been extensively tested on many different manufacturers' machines, production environments and machine sizes. Excellent detection results have been obtained, with indications of the smallest pieces able to be detected below:

Settings	2.0mm ferrous	1.0mm ferrous

INTRODUCTION

Solvent and chemical resistance refers to the ability of a fiber to retain its important physical properties. The resistance of fibers to chemicals depends not only on the type of fiber and the chemical, but concentration, temperature, time, fiber diameter, stress, etc. The following are general comments on solvent and chemical resistance, followed by a more specific table.

MATERIAL INFORMATION

POLYESTER

Heat distortion point is 250°F

Polyester has excellent resistance to most substances. It is resistant to acids, oxidizers such as hydrogen peroxide and most solvents. Polyester has excellent resistance to hydrocarbon fuels, oils and lubricants. However, it is attacked by strong alkalis such as concentrated solutions of sodium hydroxide (lye or caustic soda), calcium hydroxide (lime, mortar), ammonia, trisodium phosphate or sodium carbonate (washing soda, soda ash).

NYLON

Heat distortion point is 250°F

Nylon has excellent resistance to most substances. However, it is attacked by oxidizing agents, organic acids, mineral acids and aromatic alcohols. Nylon has excellent resistance to hydrocarbons (such as gasoline, kerosene and diesel fuel), oils, cleaning solutions and alkalis. It will absorb small amounts of water, low molecular weight alcohols (methyl, ethyl or isopropyl alcohols) and chlorinated solvents and be plasticized to them.

POLYPROPYLENE

Heat distortion point is 225°F

Polypropylene offers excellent resistance to most water soluble chemicals, including fairly strong acids or alkalis and simple hydrocarbons. It may be attacked by oxidizing agents such as hydrogen peroxide, chlorinated solvents such as 1,1,1-trichloroethane and aromatic solvents such as xylene, especially at higher temperatures.

RATINGS

S: SATISFACTORY - The material should give good service life when used with this chemical.

M: MARGINAL - Depending on temperature concentration, exposure, expected life, etc. The material may or may not give adequate performance. Specific testing for the application is recommended.

U: UNSATISFACTORY - The material will deteriorate in hours to weeks when used with this chemical.
